hi to everyone!

Doesn't the warm spring weather make you feel alive and make you want to sort out a few things inside and out!

It is very motivating and all the rain helps to refresh the garden and inspire you to spring clean and get sorted inside the house!

We are involved in the garden and art festival beginning in Te Puna area on Tuesday 9th November and then on the Friday 12th, Saturday 13th and Sunday 14th. We have Doreen McNeill's stunning abstract art on display, some fantastic indoor arrangements to view and kiwifruit vine Christmas trees for sale along with alot of other interior design ideas and products.

We look forward to you joining us beside the pool for wine and platters and/or coffee, tea and home-made slice. We are donating all proceeds to the Waipuna Hospice.

We also have beautiful new fabrics to get really excited about and a bed-setting that is forever changing.

Some of you may realise that we are going to email our newsletters in the future so if we haven't got your details we would love you to email us so that we can keep in touch more easily.

we make inspirational interiors happen

Garden & Arttest

the showroom will be open

“ WE WOULD LOVE TO SEE YOU AT THE GARDEN AND ART FESTIVAL - COME AND SOAK UP ATMOSPHERE IN THE GARDEN. WE ARE DONATING ALL PROCEEDS FROM THE WINE AND FOOD TO WAIPUNA HOSPICE. ”

Come along and see our exhibiting artist Doreen McNeill and her beautiful abstract work.

“ GAIL AND JIM NEWLAND FROM DOWN THE ROAD WILL HAVE THEIR KIWI TREES AVAILABLE FOR SALE AGAIN. THEY MAKE THE MOST STUNNING XMAS TREES. ”

Kiwi Trees

This is my favourite new fabric - an appliqued and embroidered linen from Mulberry

Our Christmas workshop will be on Friday 3rd December, 10-2pm.

We will learn how to incorporate beautiful candles and accessories into your schemes to add some extra wow at Christmas time.

Also, I am blogging on my website so that you can go online to see what is happening in the industry; www.designonjames.blogspot.com

There have been some amazing and exciting renovations and building happening this year and we are being constantly bombarded with new launches for extraordinary brands. NZ is extremely well-catered for.

Paula's favourite is the Nina Campbell new range with her beloved roses on and mine is the incredible appliqued and embroidered linens from Mulberry along with the most divine faux fur from Zinc which is very real and sumptuous.

Rachel, my daughter has a great range of ceramic hearts that she has been meticulously developing and evolving which would make awesome gifts for Christmas and these will be on display from November 12th. They have been handcrafted, beginning with mould-making at a pottery class she has been attending, so look out for these also.

The other new idea we have is making designer skirts in the bright, fun Margo Selby fabrics by sewing a couple of straight seams. Rachel has made a new skirt and a cushion out of a metre!

There are quite a few different colourways in this range and are a blend of silk and lycra.

My amazing new urn has just arrived to be centre stage in the courtyard near the pool so I must go and supervise for it's exact placement. There are times when a tractor and forklift are very handy to have at our disposal!

Looking forward to seeing you all. The wine will be flowing and the girls will be helping out in full-force to help make this a very exciting and exhilarating time promoting Tauranga and rejoicing in the creativeness of alot of people.

We look forward to seeing you during the Garden and Art festival or anytime Tuesday to Friday 10-3pm.

Warm regards, Lynette.
