Trip to France...

Peter and I were fortunate to travel to France for a 3 week break – something we have dreamed of doing for many years. We met up with our daughter Julia who has been working on the super yachts in the Mediterranean. Our travels took us along the South of France to Antibes, Cannes, Monaco, Nice, Cassis, Le Ciotat and St Tropez.

We spent a week in Provence in Saignon near Apt and thoroughly enjoyed visiting Rousillon, Bonnieux, Orange, St Remy de Provence, Gordes, Sault, Luberon, Isle de Sorges and other quaint villages in our little rental car with the GPS system which navigated us around. The countryside was very different to ours and there were typical French markets in one of the villages every day.

People loved the markets and sitting amongst them drinking rosé and having a meal from as early as 10am. We had crêpes for breakfast, little French meals in old cobbled lanes, swam in the pool overlooking the rugged countryside, picked blackberries growing wild and abundantly, shopped in the markets for cheeses and supplies and had picnics on the side of the road and talked a lot!!

We finished our trip with 5 days and nights in Paris where the historical sites were too numerous to possibly get around but we did visit the Eiffel Tower, Sacre Coeur, Champs Elysees, Arc de Triomphe, museums and art galleries in St Germain de pres and trotted around on an open air bus taking in the atmosphere of the bustling city. What an amazing place to visit, very inspiring and diverse...
